I am currently a RWCE Director Elected by the Membership and actively involved in a wide range of projects and initiatives RWCE is involved in. I spend 2 to 3 days a week in the woodland either walking, cycling or supervising schemes RWCE is undertaking. When I am in the woodland I take every opportunity to meet visitors to hear their views and concerns and also take the opportunity to promote the aims and ambitions of RWCE and the future of the woodland.

I am also actively involved in promoting RWCE through the web site, compiling articles and event information.

I have a lifelong love and interest in woodlands and understand the long term nature of their management.

I know how much I have benefited from the opportunity to explore woodlands and all the natural features they contain and wish to see as many others benefit in the same way.
